VENUE EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

Amusement Devices & Rides

Amusement Rides and Devices are allowed at the discretion of Sydney Showground. To ensure the safe location of each amusement ride and device please contact the Organiser directly for further information and they will seek approval from the venue.

Animals

Animals are only permitted within the venue with consent from Sydney Showground and in accordance with the current warnings issued by the Department of Primary Industries for the species of animal. Sydney Showground requires health certificates to be provided and evidence of appropriate vaccinations before the animals are allowed onsite.

Any animals that enter the venue must be supervised at all times and are not to be left onsite overnight. Owners must keep the public well clear of animals & animal waste. All those who come into contact with animals must wash their hands after coming in contact with either animals or animal waste.

The owners of the animals allowed on site must adhere to the RAS' Animal Welfare Policy. If a breach of animal welfare is reported, Sydney Showground reserves the right to contact RSCPA or any other relevant authority directly for further investigation. Owners must be aware of any diseases and injuries associated with animals onsite and ensure that staff, visitors & contractors are adequately educated and Sydney Showground are notified of any incident immediately.

Balloons

Exhibitors planning to use helium balloons as part of their stand display are required to inform the venue in writing. Exhibitors will be charged for the removal of any balloons remaining in the venue or for any false Fire Brigade call out costs caused by balloons activating the smoke detector beams.
